Subject: Mary Vandenack & Foundational Estate Planning Priorities in the Face of Covid-19

“Covid-19 is on a rampage through the United States. The risk of serious illness or death has many clients focused on making sure their estate plan is in order. While many exciting estate planning strategies arise when the economy changes, a priority should be making sure client foundational tools are in order.”

Mary E. Vandenack provides members with commentary regarding assisting clients with foundational estate planning when covid-19 is preventing meetings and creating a demand.
